

JACK FOWLER

Jack fowler's passion and talent for music were evident even at the early age of 3, when he had his first experiences playing piano. Being the son of two ministers, he honed his craft playing in church, as well as being classically trained.

Jack began writing songs as a teenager and was signed to a major songwriting contract at 19. During this time, he began writing and performing with well-known contemporary Christian artists, including Kathy Troccoli, and had numerous songs on the Christian music charts.

In the past decade, Jack's focus has shifted to using his music and speaking gift as a healing agent to inspire, challenge, and spark changes in those who listen. This willingness to be used by Spirit to promote Oneness and Unity has opened the door to some amazing opportunities around the world.

During the Fall of 2007, Jack toured Ukraine and Russia, speaking, facilitating workshops and presenting inspiring concerts with Neale Donald Walsch, author of 'Conversations With God'.

His song 'In the Silence' was used as the 'soundtrack' for Silent Unity's 120th Anniversary in 2010, as part of the beautiful and inspiring video produced to celebrate this milestone.

Jack has also provided music and co-created workshops for various SpiritPath retreats at Unity Village. Most currently, he worked with Rev. Paulette Pipe in October to help create the 4 day silent retreat, 'Touching The Stillness', and has also just completed co-facilitating the SpiritPath LGBT 'Out In The Open' retreat in 2012.

He has served as music director/workshop presenter for the Centers for Spiritual Living's (Science Of Mind) International conference held annually (since 1950's) at Asilomar State Park in Pacific Grove, CA.

In 2008 and 2009, Jack held the position of music director and served as a speaker/workshop presenter for the Canadian New Thought conference, in Winnipeg, MB.

He has been a guest speaker at Renaissance Unity in Chesapeake, VA / Unity on the Mountain in Huntsville, AL / The Center for Spiritual Living in Sacramento, CA / Jacksonville Center for Spiritual Living and numerous other churches and conferences.

In addition to his music/speaking travels, Jack currently serves as Music Minister for First Church Unity in Nashville, TN, which recently celebrated 95 years of ministry!
